

Biography of
Carla Coburn, Th.D.

Carla is an author, a ministry leader, and a business professional in the area of Information Technology. She grew up in the Denver Metro area and graduated from Overland High School. She received her BA in Communication/Public Relations from Regis University and her Master's and Doctorate Degree in Theology and Biblical Studies from the Minnesota Graduate School of Theology/Cathedral School of Ministry. Her Doctoral Thesis is entitled: "The Effects of Ministry on the Pastoral Couple." During her research, she developed a heart for helping those who lead congregations. She is also a new author with her first published release, "It's Time to Shift," which is a biblical change model for moving from the mundane (religious) lifestyle.

Carla has a passion for teaching, coaching and writing. She specializes in biblical studies and motivational workshops including vision planning and self-empowerment. She has accepted her calling in ministry as an Intercessor and Watchman for the Body of Christ. Her career has led her into many venues where she has birthed The Prayer Storm (a prayer ministry), Everyday Perspectives (a Christian talk show), Women of Royal Distinction (a women's ministry) and Fresh Wind Media Group (a publishing company).

Carla is the First Lady of Prince of Peace Church of God in Christ where she works alongside her husband, Pastor William Brent Coburn. The two have been married for over 25 years and have two children and five grandchildren. In her spare time, Carla enjoys cooking, reading and spending time with her cherished family and friends.
